There have been so many changes in the personnel of the Supreme Court, came in with its organization survive it. In April, 1871, Judge settle resigned to take the mission to Peru, and in May following Governor Caldwell appointed Hon. Nathaniel Boyden to the vacancy on the Supreme Court bench. In 1872, on the estabshment of the Federal District of Western North Carolina, Judge Dick resigned to take the United States udgeship, and in December of that year Governor Caldwell appointed ludge Sattle to the vacancy in the Sapreme Court. On the twentieth of November, 1873, Judge Boyden died. and the next day the Governor appointed Hon. Wm. P. Bynum to that vacancy. In July, 1876, the Republicans n minated Judge Settle for Governor, and in November Governor Brogden appointed Hon. Wm. T. Faircloth to the vacancy thus created. On the fifth January, last, Chief Justice Pearson died, and on the fourteenth Governor Vance appointed Hon. Wm. N. H. Smith Chief Justice. So the court which came in as Pearson, Reade, Rodman, Dick and Settle, went out as Smith, Reade, Rodman, Bynum and people, within the past ten years prejudicial to our Supreme Court, but it can be truthfully said that the court goes out much higher in popular esteem than it came in. The times were peculiar in which the Supreme Court Judges of 1868 were chosen, and for the first time in the history of the State they were elected by popular vote. They therefore took their places on the bench as partisans in the eyes of the people, and were viewed and criticised as political Judges. For a long time their decisions touching political and constitutional questions were regarded and prenounced political decisions, and in 1870, when Governor Holden suspended the writ of habeas corpus, and Colonel Kirk was arresting and impris-Court failed to assert itself on the great writ of right as the people thought it as it then stood will always suffer in public estimation.

Of late years public sentiment toward the Supreme Court has improved Its members have stood conspenious for ability,-and in that respect the court second to the bar of any State of the Union. If the court was political at one time it is less so now. In this respect it has improved much by the appointments of the Governor. Judge Bynum was never suspected of political bias on the bench. and as a Judge has commanded the universal respect of the bar and the people, and his ability conceded by all. Judge Faircloth is as little partisan as it is possible for one to be in our country, while Judge Reade and Rodman have taken little active part in politics, and seldom if ever voted since they came on the bench. Chief Justice Pearson protested to his dying day that the charge of partisan bias against himself was not rue, and that throughout his long life oh the bench he had endeavered to stand aloof from politics.

Conceding great ability-to the members of the court now retiring, and looking back to the time through which they passed, and disposed to allow much for the circumstances which surround men, in judicial as well as other positions in life, the News is disposed to hurl no unkind criticism after them, but looking forward to welcome the new court chosen by the people under happier auspices, leave to the impartial historian the Supreme Court of North Carolina from the turbulent times of 1868 to the more peaceful era of 1878.

It is unfortunate for a country when its Judiciary becomes the subject of from all sides. popular clamor and indignant, disrespectful criticism. So giving to the past the things that belong to the past, let us all remember as kindly as we can the Judiciary that has passed and is passing away, and moving on to better times and better things, make the most of what we have, seek to elevate by cherishing our own, and look hopefully to the future in the faith and earnestness of public candor.

Fortunately for the prisoners, perhaps, and certainly to the great relief of the town, the magistrates decided to commit them to jail without examination of more than one of the seven or more cases against them. You may form some conceptiou of the terror under which our people lived, when I tell you that this band or a part of it began operations more than a year ago and in that time have attempted no less than ten burglaries, succeeding seven times in entering the houses. ### Kicking against the Caucus. By Cable to the News.

London, Aug: 12.—Correspondence is published between Right Hon. W. E. Forster, and a member of the Executive Committee of the Bradford Liberals. Forster is invited to stand as one of the Liberal candidates for Parliament at the next election, subject to rules of the Liberal Association, with particular reference to the fifteenth rule, which provides that a candidate must agree to be guided by the decisions of said Association. Forster refuses the terms, and intimates his intention to stand independently. Forster was elected by Conservative votes in 1874, the Liberal party being divided. The Borough is probably Liberal and the object of the Executive Committee was to restore harmony and party discipline. This is a second revolt of prominent Liberals against the Caucus system, Mr. John Lecke, a member of Parlia-ment for Southwark, having previously taken the same ground now occupied by Forster.

Moreover, State laws conflict upon such interesting matters as marriage, divorce, wills, the rights of married women, the effect of limited partnerships, the relations of corporations and the compulsory attendance of witnesses, especially in criminal cases. The Carolina Merchants Visit -- A Virginia Welcome--Richmond's Attractions and Advantages. pecially Reported for the News.

RICHMOND, Va., August 10. The hospitality of the Virginians, world famous, has never been more gracefully or fully displayed than during the visit of the North Carolina merchants to the beautiful city on the James. The wearer of a blue ribbon, bearing the legend "Merchants Excursion, 1878," was made welcome on every hand. The excursion trains were two in number, one from Charlotte, with seven hundred and fifty, and one from Goldsboro, with three hundred and fifty persons aboard. The number from Raleigh was seventy-five, and some merchants of prominence were among this number. After a night's travel, the long line of cars passed at sunrise on Thursday over one of the great bridges spanning the historic James. On arrival in the city, each went to a hotel, and these hostelries were crowded with eager room-seekers.

The time was spert pleasantly in the interchange of courtesies, until 12 o'clock, when all rendezvoused at the palatial quarters of the "Commercial Club." Here, as at all other places, hospitality assumed its most spiritual form, and champagne corks popped and glasses clinked musically. At 12:30 the procession left the club rooms for the train to the Fair Grounds, where the banquet was to be served. The line was headed by Kessnich's 1st Va. Regt. Band, and a platoon of police, while after came the merchant visitors, with their Virginia hosts, in carriages or on foot. The fair grounds were soon reached by the train and on passing the gate a scene of beauty was developed. The pavilion had been tastefully festooned with banners of all nations, while over the doorway the word "welcome" was

Here as at all places else, the finest wines and other beverages flowed freely.

Liquidly refreshed, all sat down to the banquet, which presented a most attractive appearance. The best order was kept, and the attendants were carefully attentive. The bill of fare was soon discussed, and every appetite satiated by the old Virginia dinner. This duty of the day over, the regular toasts were offered and properly responded

Letters were read from Gov's Holliday, of Virginia, and Vance, of North Carolina, regretting inability to be pre-sent. Also invitations to the visitors to inspect the State Penitentiary, and to attend the concert of the Mozait Club.

OTHER PLEASURES. Strolls in the Fair Grounds, pleasant conversations and introductions, passed the time until 5 o'clock, when an exhi-bition was given of glass ball shooting. The glass balls are sprung from a trap and shot at with guns. One of the Raieigh sportsmen made a fine score. This exciting sport ended, an improvised race was shown. After the conclusion of this, all returned to the city. After tea not a few attended the fine concert of the Mozart Club, to which all were

The antique capitol the famous statue of Washington in the park, with that of Stonewall Jackson near it, each was carefully inspected. The Libby Prison, Castle Thunder, the water works, Hollywood Cemetery, the new reservoir, all had visitors.

DOWN THE JAMES. At 7 o'clock the visitors embarked on the steamer Ariel for a trip down the river. About 500 were aboard. The steamer went below the famous Dutch Gap Canal. There were abundant refreshments for all. The voyage was delightful and the moonlight added to the beauty of the river. The boat refor partition under decree of the Probate Court, and a mortgage on the land taken from the purchaser to secure the notes given for the purchase money, with a condition that on default in payment the commissioner of the court who made the sale could sell the premises at public sale for cash. The Probate Court, on representations made, ordered the land sold, part cash and part on credit, and ordered issues to be sent to the Superior Court in term time, as to the ownership of one of the notes, and as to payment of another. On the appeal from this order being heard in the Superior Court that court affirmed the order below and remanded the case. Held: The proceeding to collect the notes was properly taken by a motion in the cause. The decree was not to foreclose a mortgage but was an order to the commissioner having charge of the security to proceed under his deed to pay the debts secured and the Probate Court had jurisdiction. The commsssioner acting under order of the court is like a mortgagee under a power of sale and the mortgagor is not a necessary party. liams, from New Hanover. By a section in the charter of the plaintiff's bank, it was empowered to make advances "to any planter, farmer, miner, manufacturer, or other person, and to secure repayment of the same to take liens on crops to be raised, even be-fore planting the same; or upon prospective products of mining operations &c." Held. The language of the section does not embrace merchants, and the court will not, by implication, extend it to them. The "advancements" and "liens" should be co-temporaneous and under this section the bank is not authorized, at any subsequent time after the advancements have been made. to take a lien upon future crops, products, purchases &c., for a general balance due on said advancements. An agreement to pay a debt out of a particular fund is not an equitable assignment of the fund. The difference is between promise and performance. If a shipment is made to a house to whom said house that he will draw against said shipment, but the bill of lading is not attached to the draft, the house can nevertheless appropriate the proceeds of the shipment to their debt and leave the draft unpaid. It is otherwise if the bill of lading is attached to the draft. ### Congressional Convention.

▲ Convention of the Democrats and Conservatives of the Fourth District, will be held in the city of Raleigh, on Thursday the 22nd day of August next. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress. Each county will be entitled to one vote for every one hundred votes and fractional part over fifty, given for Gov. Vance in 1876. By order of District Ex. Committee, H. A. LONDON, Jr. July 2, 1878. Chairman.

The Democratic papers in the District wil please copy.

The Democratic House of Representatives.

It is fashionable to abuse the present Congress and to underrate the value of what was accomplished during its late session. Those of our friends who expected or predicted big results, in view of a Democratic ascendancy in the House of Representatives, forget that it was constantly checkmated by a Radi cal Senate, which placed every obstructions in the way of such salutary legislation, as, by benefitting the country, would have redounded to the advantage and popularity of the Democratic party. Those of our adversaries, who would have received with hostile criticism the wisest and most beneficent measures of reform at the hands of the Democratic House, purposely ignore and conceal the persistently antagonizing course and effect of the Republican House of Representatives for anything that it did, or sought to do, would be to disarm themselves in their desperate struggle to obtain control of the Forty-Sixth Congress,-realizing, as they do, and as we should, that upon its political complexion may depend, and probably will depend, the question of the next Presidency.

A concise summary of what was actually done by the Democratic House, at its recent session, and what it strove to do, will not only show it to have been a most useful and patriotic body of men, but will have the effect, we trust, of arousing our people to the imperative necessity of getting possession of the next House, for the sake of what has already been consummated and of what remains yet to be accomplished.

By means of the check which it imposed upon the other departments of government, it compelled a more equal and impartial diffusion of appropriations for purposes of internal improvements and for public buildings among otherwise unemployed persons were may be in it. given remunerative employment in the South. The appropriations of the four years of the Radical Forty-Second and $732.383.541. which is at the rate an average of about $184,000,000 per year. The appropriations for the two years of first year of the present Congress, amount to $439,700,455, which is at the rate of about $153,000,000. The comparison shows that, during the last seven years, four of Radical control and three of a Democratic House, the difference per year in favor of the people, i; over $30,000,000; or for the last three going too far to say that, for the various years, the aggregate saving is over $90,-000,000! The Democratic majority in the last two Houses has put a stop to Credit Mobilier, Seneca Stone, exorbitant Naval Contracts, and similar sources of wealth to the corrupt legislator. There is no longer a fortune in a seat in the House, which is the reason why it has no further charms for such men as Butler, Colfax and Co., just as Laflin and the other carpet-baggers " folded their tents like the Arabs Carolina, when there was nothing left for them to steal in it.

It is owing to the Democratic ascendancy in the present House, and to the public sentiment which brought it about, that the further retirement of greenbacks has been stopped, that silver has been remonetized, that a quietus has been placed on subsidies, that a check has been imposed upon monopolies, and that over-shadowing corporations have been held in leash. It sought to reduce the army to a standard consistent with the spirit of Republican institutions, under which an epauletted aristocracy has no right to exist. Failing in this, through the opposition of the Senate, it compelled the incorporation, in the army appropriation bill, of a clause preventing the use of the military in elections or the local concerns of the States; so that hereafter no man, be he President, General or subaltern, can bring in the soldier against the citizen, except in the spetion, without being held amenable to the violated law. It has set the bounds beyond which the Revenue officials, who have so often invaded the rights of the citizen and the sanctity of his large dare not go without being held.

House of Representatives, and will run for President as the National candidate, in case it looks strong enough to be encouraging. Those who have seen last Fricay night, a one horse Wacon, yellow wheels with black at eak down spokes, has been lately repaired, new shafts and new front wheels. A information is regard to the wagon or the thief will be than fully received by GEO. HAYE, P. O., aug 8-lw Raleigh, N. C.

for trial under State law. It has uuearthed swindles and defalcations in almost every branch of the public service, -especially in the Navy department, whose corrupt Secretary under Grant it proposes to hold oriminally responsible for malfeasance and fraud. And finally it instituted high judicial inquest into the colossal crime of the century, by which the people of the country were robbed of their rights and defrauded of their choice in the last Presidential election. These are, mainly, the accomplished facts of Democratic legislation,-besides which it initiated measures looking to the reduction of the tobacco tax, a change in the present odious tariff, a reform of the oppressive Revenue system, a remission of the tax on State banks, and the establishment of an absolute, wholesome and liberal financial policy. These things have yet to be perfected, and their completion rests with the party which inaugurated

Take the case, then, people of North Carolina. One of two things is certain: The control of the next House of Representatives must be either in Democratic or Radical hands. Any division in our own ranks, any defection in our own midst, will be just so much done towards giving that control to our enemies, while any support extended to new or independent movements will be so much strength thrown away, in so far as they can be effective for good. Shall we not grasp the situation? Shall we shut our eyes, like moles or bats, to the danger that lurks ahead? Can we fail to see that it is the aim and policy of the Radical wire-pullers, encouraged by partial success in the late elections, to foment dissensions in our own camp, and to use "independent" cats, paws to pull their chestnuts out of the fire? If we cannot and do not, then are we blind indeed, and nothing will clear our vision except the woful consequences of our fatuity when they ome, as come they will. Then let us stand by the old flag. Inder its folds we have fought the black hosts of Radicalism in the past. It has floated over victorious battle fields, where we have met and conquered the enemies of good government, of sound laws and of popular rights. It has led MR. STEVENS: us out of the wilderness of negro ascendancy and of Federal aggression. If we are true to it still, it will wave over other and loftier heights of achievement for the people and the Republic!

Butler, as a representative of the workingmen, is rich. A millionaire, Senate. To give any credit to the late whose principal investments are in Government securities, he hasn't an instinct or an interest in common with system to action. the laboring masses of the country. Kearney, the Communist, and Butler, the Plutocrat, are as ill-sorted a team as were ever sought to be worked in the same harness. There is an old cartoon of Pegasus yoked with a steer which is a not inapt illustration of the incongruity. But so it is. Men like Butler will impose themselves upon the credulous and unthinking masses of the new labor movement as a champion of their rights, to subserve their own selfish ambitions and purposes, while the duped will subscribe of their scanty earnings to give them costly ovations, ride them around in glittering equipage, and do other foolish things. Such miserable demagogues as Butler, on the one hand, and Kearney, (and we have Kearneys "at our very door," as Mr. Randolph said of the Greeks,) on the other, whose only common sympathy is a hankering after the flesh-pots of place or pap, are enough to ruin any the States, by which thousands of cause, however much of good there

The masses of the South, though not up to the standard of general educa-Forty-Third Congress amounted to tion that exists in the Northern and Eastern States, are much better versed in the political history of the country and in the science of government. The the Forty-Fourth Congress, and the superiority of our people in the latter respect is, perhaps, chiefly attributable to the practice of joint discussions between candidates for office in the South and the thorough canvasses which precede elections. Take the State of North Carolina, for example. There are 94 counties in the State. It is not offices, there were on the two sides, in the late canvass, an average of fifteen candidates to a county, and that the average duration of the campaign was two weeks. This would give us over 19,000 speeches made in the State pending the canvass. When we reflect that the hustings were almost universally well attended, some idea of the political enlightenment imparted and received may be conceived. And the large majority of the people, from long experiand silently stole away" from North ence in such collisions, are fully qualified to separate the wheat from the General W. H. Forney, of Alabama, we are pleased to see, has been renominated for Congress in his district. Gen T. is one of the truest men in the present House. He is an ex-North Caro linian, as are Manning, of Mississippi, Gause, of Arkansas, Riddle, of Tennessee, Davidson, of Florida, and perhaps others whose names we do not recall. It is a disputed point whether Senator Thurman is a native of this State or of Virginia. By the way, there are four native Germans, one Englishman, two or three Irishmen and two Scotchmen in the House, and one native Scotchman (that sterling patriot, Beck, of Kentucky), in the Senate.

Senator Thurman has been interviewed. He thinks Ben Butler has his eye on the possibility of the Presidential election being thrown into the next aug 9-tf Massachusettts and the other on the Executive chair at the same time. But how do Southern Nationals fancy the spoon-hero as their chief?

The Spartan youth were taught to believe that the only guilt of theft consisted in its detection. The mendacious Mr. Fagg, in Sheridan's comedy of The Rivals, assures us that, though he never scrupled to tell a lie at his master's command, yet it hurt his conscience to be found out. John Sherman was much disgruntled at the discovery of his autograph attached to an endorsement of Helper's Impending Crisis, though he vowed it was not there. And so, after swearing that he never wrote the Anderson-Weber letter, he lives in mortal terror of its production.

The South Carolina Republicans, in their late convention, expressed their "abhorrence of fraud" and then turned around and denounced the "investigation of fraud."

The meagre vote received by a late 'Independent' candidate for Superior Conrt Judge is a severe warning against the folly of going off half-cocked.

"Kill them"-Grant's avowed method of dealing with the workingmen.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

-The Supreme Court adjourned yesterday.

-The Board of Directors of the State Penitentiary meets to-day. --- Many seats have been selected in the Houses of the Legislature, for the members.

-The Richmond excursionists have almost all returned from their pilgrim--The flocks of geese on the streets lend a rural appearance to the city that is quite charming. -Beware of the Mexican dollar.

It has been valued at 90 cents, and passes for that amount only. -The new post office stands open for inspection. A pleasant place to spend half an hour in surveying.

- The last argument before the Supreme Court, late deceased, was made by John Devereux, Jr., Esq. -- The Criminal Court will be in session this week, and will then adjourn for two weeks to give space for the term of the Superior Court. -The city editor's account of the Richmond trip would have appeared in Saturday's issue but for the digests of Supreme Court Opinions.

-We call especial attention to the Holt property, offered for rent by Mr. George T. Cook. This house has been before the public too long to require any praise from us.

-Whistlers of 'My Grandfather's Clock," and "Whoa, Emma," are notified that they will be prosecuted to the extent of the law if they cease not their execrable iteration of those melo-

-In consequence of the many new babies which have made their recent advent, and the credulity of their anxious fathers, old sister Sanders has been enabled to sell her inevitable bundle of root pipe stems for sweet flag. -In some cities it is required that each owner of a lot or place of business shall keep in front of such place a barrel into which all garbage is to be thrown, that it may be emptied into the scavenger carts. This adds much to cleanliness. F. W. Walter, the celebrated piano tuner and repairer, is in the city, and those who have instruments needing that kind of attention should not fail to to call upon him at once, as he only remains here a short thime. See advertisement.

Novel Sports.

Near Auburn, on Saturday, a jolly party met and enjoyed a barbecue. Before the feast three of the most adipose citizens of the county, among them Dave Lewis, Esq., ran a foot race against time.

Quick Trip.

Maj. J. C. Winder, Superintendent Raleigh and Augusta Air-Line Railroad, left the city yesterday morning at five o'clock, went to Carthage, in Moore county, attended to three cases in court, and returned to the city by five o'clock in the afternoon.

Death of Judge Bragg. On Saturday last Judge John Bragg,

of Mobile, Alabama, died of an attack of apoplexy. The deceased was a brother of the late Governor Thomas Bragg, of this city, and was a gentleman of rare legal attainments and great social worth.

Military Notes.

S. A. Day has been elected Second Lieutenant, and John C. Angier, Junior Second Lieutenant, of the recently organized infantry company of Durham. At a meeting to be held this week a name will be selected for the command.

Two cotton bolls, sufficiently opened to admit of picking, have been brought in. The cotton was aided in its growth by "Planters' Favorite" guano. It was raised by Mr. J. T. Carroll, of Elevation Township, Johnston county.

Camp Meeting. A number of colored persons left the city on an excursion train for Durham, on Sunday, where they took in the sights and perhaps participated in the religious blisses of agenuine old-fashioned camp meeting. The attendance was very large.

Reliable Goods at Low Prices. The quality of the goods on sale at the dry goods establishment of Petty and Jones is unsurpassed. Fresh additions to the stock are daily made, and the attentive clerks seem ever busy attending customers. This is the era of low prices, and at this house the most dren, at Heller Bro's Shoe Store, 31 desirable bargains can be made.

Mayor's Court.

There was perfect peace in the city on Sunday, at least there was no indication of a past row at the Mayor's Court yesterday. Only one case was tried and that was a postponed one. F. J. Menninger, J. H. Renfrow and Mac Smith, for an affray at the old Fair Grounds on election night, wherein the former was wounded by a pistol ball in the arm, were all held to appear at Criminal Court, in a bond of $50 each.

Serve an Injunction on Disease

By invigorating a feeble constitution, renovating a debilitated physique, and enriching a thin and innutritious circulation with Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the finest, the most highly sanctioned, and the most popular tonic and preventive in existence. It strengthens the stomach, remedies torpor of the liver and bowels, and gives a healthful impulse to the secretive and discharging functions of the kidneys and bladder. Not only does it arrest and prevent the recurrence of malarial fevers, but it furnishes the only adequate safeguard against them to persons who have never been afflicted with those maladies, but would be tiable to incur them if media cinally unprotected. It eliminates from the blood certain impurities which the most skillful pathologists assign as the exciting causes of those agonizing complaints, rheumatism and gout, and it is, moreover, an excellent remedy for an enfeebled or overwrought state of the nerves, and for mental despondency. aug 13-6t

An Undeniable Truth.

You deserve to suffer, and if you lead a miserable unsatisfactory life in this beautiful world, it is entirely your own fault and there is only one excuse for you, -your unreasonable prejudice and skepticism, which has killed thousands. Personal knowledge and common sense reasoning will soon show you that Green's August Flower will cure you of Liver Complaint, or Dyspepsia, with all its miserable effects, such as sick headache, palpitation of the heart, sour stomach, habitual costiveness, dizziness of the head, nervous prostration, low spirits, &c. Its sales now reach every town on the Western Continent and not a druggist but will tell you of its wonderful cures. You can buy a sample bottle for ten cents. ### Western North Carolina Rail-

The withdrawalby Weddin & Bailey of their coaches and teams from the Western North Carolina Railroad, at Henry, will result in no inconvenience to the traveling public, as an entirely new outfit of coaches, carriages and hacks, with spleudid horses, was placed on the line between Henry and Asheville, by Brown and Verble, before the above mentioned withdrawal of Weddin & Bailey.

The new line offers every facility for the accomodation and convenience of the public. Families can still have conveyances to themselves when desired. Railroad companies and others who have been selling tickets to Asheville and Warm Springs with coupons attached for stage line from head of Western North Carolina Railroad, will continue to do so, as such coupons will be recognized and received for fare over the new line. From Christian Union, August 22, 1877.

EVER since Dr. Wm. M. # JONES' BAKING

We ask all cooks, housewives, and the general public to give our goods an impartial trial. This Powder is carefully prepared upon scientific principles—the result of long and careful experiments and tests in chemistry. In its proportions and compounding, it is the parfecting of science, and is recommended by the leading Cremists in the United States, whose tificates we have. It is perfectly pure and wholesome, and saves time, labor and money to every consumer. It stands unrivaled; we challenge the world to produce better, pure more wholesome goods.

REASONS WHY IT SHOULD BE USED:

A BARREL OF FLOUR MAKES ABOUT 40 POUNDS MORE BREAD IT NEVER FAILS AND ALWAYS PLEASES THE CONSUMER. IT IS THE PERFECTION OF SCIENCE IN COOKERY. IT IS A COMFORT FOR EVERY HOME.

YOUR BREAD WILL NEVER BE SOUR. YOUR FOOD WILL BE THE BEST. YOUR BREAD WILL BE WHITER AND RICHER. YOUR HEALTH WILL BE PRESERVED BY ITS PURITY.

WARRANTED TO KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE

We do most earne-tly caution consumers of Baking Powder against using adulter atand cheap goods, as no good and pure Baking Powder can be sold for less than ours.

An analysis of the cheap clap-trap sourious adulterated goods called Baking Powder, would startle the community of consumers beyond precedence, as most of it is not fit for use, and would not be allowed to be sold were the laws enforced; yet goods of this kind are manufactured and sold by dealers because offered cheap by uns rupuious manufacturers.
We caution those who value health, and appreciate good, wholesome living, to buy only Pure Baking Powder. Jones' Unrivaled is such. It is an established article through ut he West and South, and is recommended by the highest authority for Purity and strength.
All first-class storek sepers have it because it is pure and can be relied upon, and is a credit to their stock.

Merchants are authorized to warrant our goods where directions are followed.

Our statements are correct and are backed by chemists of note and experience, and we hold ourselves ready to prove our assertions.

We are offering goods of undoubted purity, which are in their compounding, as we claim "UNRIVALED."

BEAUTY:

IANO FOR SALE! Secret of a Fair Face

AN ITEM OF INTREST TO EVERY LADY WHO DESIRES TO BE MORE BEAU.
TIFUL THAN SHE NOW IS. Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred, subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty—a pure and clear complexion point of real blauty—a pure and clear complexion.
What nature has thus denied, art must be called upon to furnish.
It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. W.
E. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every unblessed daughter of Eve when Le ciscovered that surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA

BALM

The MAGNOLIA BALM is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion. It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner. It removes all roughness eruptions, redness blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power. cal power.

It drives away all evidences of fatigue and

It drives away all evidences of fatigue and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, face, and arms appear graceful, rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawb.ck to beauty; and while it is as harmless as water, it is so lifelike in its effects that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things cousidered, and may be had at any drug stors.
